

Golden Slippers

Bluegrass Classic, Key of A My Key: ____

INTRO: PART A: 2X (1 , 1 5 , 5 , 5 1)

PART B: 2X (1 , 4 , 5 , 5 1)

VERSE: Them 1 golden slippers I laid away

I 1 ain't a-gonna wear 'em 'til my 5 wedding day

My 5 long tall coat, I used to wear

And I'll- 5 ride up-in the chariot in the 1 mornin'

PART A

CHORUS:

1 Oh, them golden slippers, 4 oh, them golden slippers

5 Golden slippers I'm gonna wear, because they look so 1 neat

1 Oh, them golden slippers, 4 oh, them golden slippers

5 Golden slippers I'm gonna wear, to walk down golden 1 street

PARTS A + B

ADDITIONAL VERSES:

Now, 1 old brother Ben and sister Luce

Sent a 1 telegram message-to Uncle 5 'Bacco Juice

Got the 5 big camp meetin' that'll be that day

When I 5 ride out-in the chariot in the 1 mornin'

And my 1 long white robe that I bought last June

I'm 1 gonna get changed 'cause it 5 fits too soon

And the 5 old grey horse that I used to drive

I'll 5 hitch him to the chariot in the 1 mornin'

Oh 1 my ol' banjo hangs on the wall

'Cause it 1 ain't been turned since 5 way last fall

But the 5 folks all say we'll have a good time

When we 5 ride up-in the chariot in the 1 mornin'

So it's 1 goodbye children, I'll have to go

Where the 1 rain don't fall and the 5 wind don't blow

And your 5 Ulster coast, why you will not need

When you 5 ride up-in the chariot in the 1 mornin'

But your 1 golden slippers must be nice and clean

And your 1 age must be just 5 sweet sixteen

And your 5 white kid gloves you will have to wear

When you 5 ride up-in the chariot in the 1 mornin'
