

Burglar Man - Country Gentlemen

Bluegrass Classic, Key of C My Key: ____

I'll 1 tell you a story 'bout a burglar man, who went to rob a 5 house
He 5 crept in through the window, as quietly as a 1 mouse
1 Thinkin' of the money that he would steal, as-under the bed he 5 lay
He 5 certainly saw a sight that night that made his hair turn 1 gray

TURNAROUND: 4 , 5 , 1 , 1

About 1 nine o'clock an old maid came in, and I'm so tired she 5 said
5 Thinkin'-everything gonna be alright, she forgot-to look under the 1 bed
She 1 took out her teeth, her big glass eye
And her hair came from off'a her 5 head
This 5 burglar man had nineteen fits as he crawled from under the 1 bed

TURNAROUND

She 1 pulled a pistol from the drawer, and to this burglar man 5 said
Young 5 man if you won't marry me, I'll blow-off the top of your 1 head
He 1 looked at her teeth and her big glass eye
And he'd no place where to 5 scoot
So he 5 turned to the old maid standin' by
And-said Woman, for the Lord's sake 1 shoot

TURNAROUND

Now this 1 burglar man is dead I guess
But I-don't know where he's 5 gone
5 Up above or down below, I'm now through singin' this 1 song
