VERSE 1:

Take me 1 home, to the place, where I 4 first saw the 5 light
To the 1 sweet, sunny south, take me 4 home
Where the 1 mock,ingbirds 4 sing, me to 1 sleep, every 5 night
Oh 1 why, was I 5 tempted to 1 roam

Oh I 1 think with regret, of the 4 dear home I've 5 left
And the 1 warm hearts, who cheer,ed me 4 then
And the 1 wife, and the 4 dear ones, of 1 whom, I'm be- 5 reft
And the 1 sight of the 5 old, place a- 1 gain

INSTRUMENTAL: Same as INTRO

Take me 1 home, to the place, where my 4 little ones 5 sleep
And ol' 1 Massa, lies buried close 4 by
For the 1 graves of my 4 loved ones, I 1 long, there to 5 weep
And a- 1 mong them, to 5 rest, and to 1 die

Take me 1 home, to a place, where the orange trees 5 grow
To my 1 cott, in the, evergreen 5 shade
Where the 1 flowers o'er the 4 rivers', green 1 margins they 5 grow
They're 1 sweet, on the 5 banks, where we 1 play

INSTRUMENTAL

Oh the 1 path, to our cottage they say is grown 5 green
The 1 place, is quite lonely a- 4 round
And I 1 know, that the 4 smiles, and the 1 forms I have 5 seen
Now 1 lie, in the 5 cold, mossy 1 ground
