CHORUS: (first time "So" instead of "And")

You can 1 take your time in comin', back to 4 me
You'd 5 trade my love for a stranger's sympathy- 1 y
I-won't a- 1 play the fool, in a duel of love you 4 see
And/So you can 5 take your time in comin', back to 1 me

It's 1 getting late tonight the bars all 4 closed
You'll be 5 comin', home if-you're all alone I 1 know
The 1 door is locked, I've thrown away the 4 key
And you can 5 take your time in comin', back to 1 me

When you're 1 old and all alone well then you'll 4 pay
For a 5 home of love, and life you threw a- 1 way
Be- 1 fore you make that call, you'd better 4 think
And you can 5 take that dime and buy yourself a 1 drink
