It's been 1 ten, long 3 years, since 4 I, left my 1 home

In the 1 holl,er where I was 5 born

Where the 1 cool, fall 3 nights, make the 4 wood, smoke 1 rise

And a 1 fox hunter 5 blows, his 1 horn (extra two beats)

I 1 fell, in 3 love, with a 4 girl from the 1 town

I 1 thought, that she would be 5 true

I 1 ran, a- 3 way, to 4 Char,lottes- 1 ville

And 1 worked, in a 5 sawmill or 1 two

CHORUS: 5 What have they done, to the 1 old home place

2 Why, did they tear it 5 down

And 1 why, did I 3 leave, the 4 plow in the 1 field

And 1 look, for a 5 job, in the 1 town

INSTRUMENTAL: Same as INTRO

Well the 1 girl, ran 3 off, with 4 somebody 1 else

The 1 tar,iffs took all my 5 pay

And 1 here, I 3 stand, where the 4 old, home 1 stood

Be- 1 fore, they 5 took it a- 1 way (extra two beats)

Now the 1 geese, fly 3 south, and the 4 cold, wind 1 moans

As 1 I, stand here and hang my 5 head

I've 1 lost, my 3 love, I've 4 lost, my 1 home

And 1 now, I 5 wish that I was 1 dead
