1 Warm Kentucky 5 sunshine in the 1 morning

3 Makes you glad the long nights turn to 4 day

4 Trying to catch a ride, to West Vir- 1 ginia

. The 2 early morning people pass a- 5 way

This 1 old guitar looks 5 near as bad as 1 I do

And I 3 tell you now, it sure has been a 4 friend

It 4 brings a happy song, when at 1 night we're 3m all a- 6m lone

And I'll 4 tell you now I've 5 seen a few of 1 these

CHORUS:

And we've been 5 leav,,ing like two 4 shadows in the 1 night

5 Slipped away and never made a 4 sound

I'll 4 hold my thumb up high

But the 1 cars keep 3m blowing 6m by

And this 4 freedom's, just a 5 feeling coming 1 down

INSTRUMENTAL: 1 5 , 1 , 3 , 4 , 4 , 1 , 2 , 5

The 1 echo of the 5 wheels into the 1 distance

Like some 3 California dream I left be- 4 hind

And 4 visions of my San Francisco 1 baby

2 Laying like a whisper on my 5 mind

As 1 lovers we got 5 hooked into a 1 feeling

Until 3 circumstances led us separate 4 ways

Now 4 here I stand alone, with 1 nothing 3m but a 6m song

And this 4 freedom's, just a 5 feeling coming 1 down (STOP)

CHORUS but "going" instead of "blowing"

And I'll 4 hold my thumb up high

But the 1 cars keep 3m rolling 6m by

And this 4 freedom's, just a 5 feeling coming 1 down
