

Side By Side - Blueridge

Unusual Meter Bluegrass Contemporary, Key of A My Key: ____

INTRO: ⁷1, ⁷4, ⁴1, ⁷1, ⁶4, ⁴1 (beat count)

1 Just a young girl of seventeen, the prettiest girl he'd ever 4 seen
He 4 dreamed someday she'd be his 1 wife
She 1 took his hand and said I do, I'll never love anyone but 4 you
And I'll 4 never say good- 1 bye 1 1 1

REFRAIN:

The 5 greatest love ever, they 4 walked side by 1 side
What a 5 happy life together, they 4 laughed and they 1 cried

TURNAROUND: ⁷1, ⁶4, ⁴1 (beat count)

They 1 made a home and a family, through the good and bad they'd always 4 be 4 Hand in hand and side by 1 side
He 1 worked two jobs just to get them by
She, cooked the meals the old wood stove 4 style
The 4 work was hard, but their love was 1 strong

REFRAIN / INSTRUMENTAL: Same as INTRO

1 Time moved on, and the hair turned gray, and the grandkids came by, every 4 day
4 How they loved to see them 1 smile
She'd 1 sit and hold them in her arms, they could be no further from all 4 harm
They were 4 angels in her 1 eyes

REFRAIN / TURNAROUND

Our 1 Father called her home one day, he prayed Oh Lord please let her 4 stay
How 4 can I live, without her 1 here
She'll be 1 waitin' on the other side, you could see her when you close your 4 eyes
She'll 4 never say good- 1 bye

REFRAIN / INSTRUMENTAL

1, 1 Just a young girl of seventeen, the prettiest girl he'd ever 4 seen
