1 Daybreak on the mountain

And the 4 sunlight melts the morning, mist a 1 way,

1 Sitting in an old chair

On the 4 front porch rockin' in a brand new 1 day,

4 Honeysuckle 5 fragrance drifting 1 sweetly in the breeze

And 4 in the pine, the 5 bluebirds sing good 1 morning melodies

So 1 many times I've been here in my mind, since I've been gone

Makes me 4 feel, like I'm 5 al,most 1 home 5 6m 5 , 4 5

The 1 city life that called me

Told this 4 wide eyed mountain boy to run a- 1 way,

But the 1 world I left behind me

Was the 4 one, I kept longing for each 1 day,

I 4 told, Mom and 5 Daddy I'd be 1 comin' back again

The 4 years, slipped a- 5 way, like all my 1 promises to them

So 1 many of my loved ones have-left this world, and gone

Makes me 4 feel, like I'm 5 al,most 1 home 5 6m 5 , 4 5

INSTRUMENTAL

1 Nightfall on the mountain

And a 4 million tiny stars come out to 1 shine,

1 Sittin' on the front porch

With a 4 thousand mountain memories on my 1 mind,

I grew 4 up, in this 5 cabin Daddy 1 built here in the trees

I 4 had to go so 5 far, before the 1 truth came home to me

1 Home is where the heart is, and my journey's been so long

To- 4 night I feel I'm 5 al,most 1 home 5 6m 5 , 4 5
