

The Carolinian - Chatham County Line

Bluegrass Contemporary, Key of E My Key: ____

INTRO: 5 , 4 5 , 1 , 5 , 4 5 , 1 1 , 1 1

We 1 met on the Carolinian, heading 4 south from D 1 C
It's 1 as if God Himself, had 4 picked out our 5 seats
She 4 smiled and said Richmond, when I 1 asked where she was 5 bound
I be- 1 gan to wish my 3m life away, be- 4 fore 5 we left 1 town
We 1 talked a little bit and then she smiled, I 4 saw that in her 1 eyes
She 1 wasn't just beautiful, she was 4 kind and she was 5 wise
But a 4 woman down in Raleigh, would 1 soon have my 5 son
So I 1 waited for her 3m station like, a 4 bullet 5 from a 1 gun (STOP)

REFRAIN:

She's in Richmond with my 5 heart, 4 and I'm 5 bound, for Caro- 1 lina
1 Wish I'd never met this 5 train, 4 or the 5 girl it's left be- 1 hind her
When the 1 train meets the station, she 4 looked me in the 1 eye
Said 1 come with me to Richmond and we'll 4 start a brand new 5 life
Well you 4 know that moment, still, 1 weighs on my 5 mind
'Cause it 1 took my body to 3m Raleigh, and 4 left my 5 heart be- 1 hind

REFRAIN

3m Now we're a- 6m part 5
4 While I'm bound for Caro- 5 lina, she's in Richmond with my 1 heart

My 1 son is grown up to my hand and it 4 fills me with 1 pride
I 1 take him down to the station, to 4 watch the trains roll 5 by
That 4 northbound, Carolinian always 1 makes the teardrops 5 start
'Cause it's 1 headed up to Vir- 3m ginia, 4 where I 5 left my 1 heart, (STOP)

REFRAIN

3m Now we're a- 6m part 5
