Put together a group of talented musicians with a passion for great sound and vocal harmonies. Add a little bluegrass, country, Americana, roots and some original tunes, mix it all up and you get a treat for the discerning listener. Their eclectic set list is great for all audiences. They play at festivals, special events, pubs, house parties and more. They continue to create their own unique brand of music and are an energetic band to watch and listen to. You won't be able to keep your feet from tapping and your hands from clapping,

The Pie Plates is a hard working band, rehearsing weekly and playing approximately 20 – 25 shows per year. Their mandate is to put on an engaging and entertaining show. They pride themselves on maintaining a sense of professionalism both on and off the stage.

Some of the places they have played include Brockville, Ribfest, The All Ships Festival, Findley Ridge Bluegrass Festival - Kingston, The Dandelion Festival - Kemptville, Art on the Waterfront Festival - Chesterville, South Grenville Bluegrass Festival - Spencerville, The Branch - Kemptville, Pressed Gourmet Sandwich Shop - Ottawa, The Branch, Kemptville, Jonas St Music Festival - Lyndhurst, Eastern Ontario Bluegrass Festival - Lombardy, The Mallorytown Village Fair, Bristol, Quebec – Community Centre Concert, O'Reilly's Sunday Night Listening Room – Perth and many more. They are booked at numerous Festivals and events for 2017 including Galop Canal Bluegrass Festival, Minden Hills Bluegrass Festival, South Grenville Bluegrass Festival, Kemptville Ribfest and more to come. They receive excellent reviews whenever they play.

Nellie has one solo CD "Dancing in the Kitchen" of original material released with airplay on many radio stations around the world. One of her songs was selected for Acoustic Rainbow's Sampler. The Pie Plates have just released their first CD - "Another Slice Please" with much of the CD consisting of original material. Their newest member Bob Webb is also an award winning songwriter and performer." They are currently working on their next album of original songs written by Bob and Nellie, which they hope to release sometime this year.

They have a number of videos on YouTube.

Here is a link to a few of their videos. You can also hear some tunes on their website – just click on the listen button on our home page and enjoy!
