

Dooley - The Dillards

Bluegrass Classic, Key of B My Key: ____

INTRO: 2X ( 1 4 , 1 5 , 1 4 , 5 1 ) , 1

1 Dooley was a 4 good ol' man, he 1 lived below the 5 mill
1 Dooley had two 4 daughters and a 5 forty gallon 1 still
1 One gal watched the 4 boiler, the 1 other watched the 5 spout
And 1 mama corked the 4 bottles
And ol' 5 Dooley fetched 'em 1 out

CHORUS:

1 Dooley, slippin' up the holler, 4 Dooley, tryin' to make a dollar
1 , Dooley give me a swaller, I'll 5 pay you back some- 1 day

INSTRUMENTAL: Same as INTRO

The 1 revenuers 4 came for him
A- 1 slippin' though the 5 woods
1 Dooley kept be- 4 hind them all, and 5 never lost his 1 goods
1 Dooley was a 4 trader, when 1 into town he'd 5 come
1 Sugar by the 4 bushel, and mo- 5 lasses by the 1 ton

CHORUS / INSTRUMENTAL

1 I remember 4 very well, the 1 day ol' Dooley 5 died
The 1 women folk weren't 4 sorry
And the 5 men stood round and 1 cried
Now 1 Dooley's on the 4 mountain, he 1 lies there all a- 5 lone
They 1 put a jug be- 4 side him, and a 5 barrel for his 1 stone

CHORUS

And I'll 5 pay you back 1 someday 1 4 , 1 5 1
