As we 1 sat on the front porch
Of that 4 old gray house, where I was born and 1 raised 6m Starin' at the dusty fields, 4 where my
Daddy worked hard, every 1 day
Well I 6m think it kinda hurt him, when I said 4 Daddy
There's a lot, that I don't 1 know
But 6m don't you ever dream about a 4 life
Where corn don't 1 grow
1 He just sat there silent, 4 starin', at his favorite coffee 1 cup
I saw a 6m storm of mixed emotion in his 4 eyes
When he looked 1 up
He said 6m Son, I know at your age
You 4 think, that this old world is turning 1 slow
And you 6m think you'll find the answer to it 4 all
Where corn don't 1 grow
