INTRO: 2X ( 1 , 5 , 5 , 1 )

It was the 1 first time, ever he 5 saw her
He saw his 5 future, in a 1 long white cotton gown
Sittin' there at the 1 church house, she was gonna get 5 baptized
They's a-gonna have a 5 dinner, on the 1 ground

TURNAROUND: 1 , 5 , 5 , 1

So the very next 1 Friday, he got off at the 5 sawmill
He slicked his 5 hair back, he-had-a 1 pocket full of pay
When she opened up the 1 front door, he was grinnin' like a 5 possum
As he handed her a 5 daisy, she heard him 1 say, hey let's go

CHORUS:

1 Dancin' to the tune, of a 4 twenty dollar bill
They've got a 4 fine fiddle band, at the 1 barn up on the hill
And 1 by midnight we 1' just might wind up 4 dancin' standin' still
By my 4 Daddy's lantern 5 light, I'll walk ya 1 home

INSTRUMENTAL: Same as INTRO

After they got 1 married, it didn't seem like 5 no time
They's a sayin' their 5 goodbyes, he's a- 1 goin' to the big world war
'Bout a lifetime 1 later, she's a-waitin' at the 5 depot
He said I-ain't-a-gonna 5 leave you, no never no 1 more, say let's go

CHORUS except for different last line:

By my 4 Daddy's lantern 5 light, let me walk ya 1 home

INSTRUMENTAL

In front of friends and 1 kinfolk, and all of us 5 grandkids
In the same little 5 church house, in a 1 long white cotton gown
He-bent down and 1 kissed her, he said I'm right, be- 5 hind ya honey
It wasn't long until we 5 laid him, in the 1 ground, and now they're

CHORUS except for different last line:

By the 4 Father's lantern 5 light, they're walkin' 1 home
