When 1 I was pushing thirty, she, was in her teens
1 Oh, how she loved me, this 4 pretty teenage 1 queen,
But a 1 few years after marriage, she loved, me no more
When 1 I was pushing forty, she was- 4 barely twenty 1 four,
5 Then the trouble started, bet- 4 ween Carolyn and 1 me,
5 I was satisfied at home but she 4 longed to be 5 free,
Been 1 searching for that somethin', and the pastures looked so green
1 Through the eyes of Carolyn, Caro- 4 lyn the teenage 1 queen,

INSTRUMENTAL: Same as INTRO

Each 1 day her love grew colder, at night she'd go to town
1 Gossip, came to me, Caro- 4 lyn was running 1 round,
I 1 didn't want to-believe it, but knew-it, must be true
I 1 couldn't stand to lose her, so I 4 knew what I must 1 do,
5 Carolyn I was thinking, 4 as I cleaned my 1 gun,
Go 5 out and have a good time, it's 4 your last night of 5 fun,
1 Twelve o'clock, one o'clock, 'til a-quarter, 'til two 1 I'm still burning the-midnight oil, 4 waiting up for 1 you,

INSTRUMENTAL

1 Car pulled in the driveway, the man wore a-badge and gun
Said 1 you got a wife named Carolyn, I 4 think you better 1 come,
In a 1 wreck out on the highway, she'd met her final end
I 1 stared in-her face so deathly white, she 4 cheated-me once a- 1 gain,
Each 5 night I think of Carolyn, 4 layin' beneath the 1 soil,
Each 5 night my mind grows weaker as I 4 burn the midnight 5 oil,
My 1 mind has thoughts of her bad sides that my heart's never seen
I'm 1 still in love with Carolyn, Caro- 4 lyn the teenage 1 queen,
I'm 1 still in love with Carolyn, Caro- 4 lyn the teenage 1 queen,
